Mr. Hartranft moved that Wm. M. Smith be elected by acclamation.

Which was unanimously agreed to.

And Wm. M. Smith was declared unanimously elected President of Common Council for the ensuing term.

Mr. Iseminger conducted the President to the Chair, when he administered the oath of office to him.

The President made the following address: I beg to thank you members of Common Council, for this renewed expression of your confidence in me as your presiding officer. The year which has just closed has been in many respects a very important year in the legislation of the City of Philadelphia, and the men who participated in that legislation, and contributed to its success, are justly entitled to the thanks and commendation of their constituents.

A larger amount of money has been collected from the tax-payers, and a larger amount has been expended, than was ever before collected and expended in one year; and while the demands upon the City Treasury are constantly and in every direction increasing, the resources of the city and her means of raising revenue are likewise increasing at a rate which will soon enable us to meet every reasonable and just requirement on the part of our people. I say will soon enable us; and I use that qualification because there are some necessities which in my judgment have become immediate and urgent, and for which it seems to me that provision ought to be made without delay, and outside of the regular and ordinary methods of raising money by taxation. The monstrous folly of locating that colossal structure, known as the City Hall, on the intersection of the two finest avenues in the City has, I think, long since become apparent to the community. But while there may perhaps be some difference of opinion as to the justice of this criticism, there ought to be none as to the wisdom and expediency of completing, at least during the present century, a work which has now been going on continuously for a period of nearly seventeen years. I do not mean to cast the slightest blame upon Councils or upon the Building Commission. Councils have appropriated to the Commission all the money which could be safely appropriated out of current taxation, and the Commission has, no doubt, expended that money wisely, judiciously and honestly. If any man knows anything to the contrary, the law provides a method by which he can utilize his knowledge for the benefit of the taxpayers. But abuse of Councils for not appropriating more money, and abuse of the Commission for not hastening and completing the building ought to stop. The time has come when accommodations in the City Hall ought to be at once provided for the Courts, for City Councils, and for all the departments which are now occupying rented buildings. It is both unreasonable, and unjust, that the enormous cost of doing this should be borne entirely by the present generation, when the benefits to be derived therefrom will be shared by those who shall come after us for a century and a half at least.

The needs of the Public School Department have also become urgent and imperative. What's the use of talking about compulsory education before we have provided for all the requirements of voluntary education. School room ought to be supplied for the very last child who is willing and anxious to go to school, before you provide an inch of space for a boy or a girl who will go to school only when compelled to go by an Act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

There are, at the lowest calculation, eight or ten thousand children in the City of Philadelphia to-day for whom there is no school room at distances reasonably near and convenient to their homes. In some of the Wards many of the children are obliged to be content with half time, one set of children, in many cases fifty or sixty to a division, going to school in the morning, and another set in the afternoon. Leaving out of the case the cruelty that this practice involves to the teachers, and the great injustice it does to the children, and to their parents, if a more mortifying and humiliating spectacle can be presented for the contemplation of a great City like Philadelphia, I should like to know where and what it is.

The Bureaus of Surveys and Highways of the Department of Public Works have rendered to the city, during the last year, valuable and efficient service. The executive officers of these bureaus have been ably seconded by their respective joint committees of Councils, and I desire to bear this public testimony to the zeal, the punctuality and the fidelity with which the chairmen and members of those committees have attended to the exacting and responsible duties of their positions. I mention these matters here, because these committees will remain substantially as they were last year, and if they are to comply with the demands and fulfill the expectations of the people, they must have money placed at their disposal for the improvement of our highways and for the construction of main sewers.

Wingohocking Creek, Gunner's Run, Mill Creek, and a dozen others are examples of what the city ought to complete with as little delay as possible. Not only for the sake of the health and comfort of the people who live in their vicinity, but because the increased revenue which the city will derive from improvements certain to be made by private capital and enterprise, as soon as such improvements can be made with safety, will, within a few years, bring back into the treasury all the cost of the public work.

At the last session of Councils, I introduced an ordinance to authorize the creation of a city loan for five million dollars ($5,000,000). The bill was referred to the Committee on Finance, and by that committee sent to the City Solicitor for the purpose of obtaining from him his opinion as to the power of the city to create such a loan. That opinion has not yet been received, but it will be ready for transmission to the Finance Committee at their first meeting after the organization of Councils.

Should it be against the power of the city to create such a loan, that will end the matter, and we shall have to allow things to go on as they are now going, or resort to the only other alternative of a moderate increase of the tax rate. Should the City Solicitor, however, decide that the city has the power to borrow the money, I will again introduce the five million loan bill, and then it will remain for Councils to decide whether it will be expedient for the city to exercise its power.

The greatest banking house in this country will agree to take the whole loan at three per cent. per annum; and inasmuch as the City is paying rent at the rate of ten per cent. per annum upon the assessed valuation of some of the property she occupies, it seems to me that it would be good financiering to borrow the money at three per cent., and then provide quarters for the Departments in the City Hall as soon as possible. One-half of the proceeds of the loan ought to go the Public Building Commission. Five hundred thousand dollars should go to the Board of Education for new school houses. Eight hundred thousand dollars to each of the Bureaus of Highways and Surveys; and the remaining four hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the purchase of the islands in the Delaware River. The indications are, I regret to say, that the State of New Jersey will contribute nothing for that purpose, and it looks as if our own Legislature intended to pass a bill appropriating two hundred thousand dollars, but with such conditions incorporated in it as to make it practically of no use to us. It will then remain for the people of Philadelphia, alone, with the generous aid already extended by the Government of the United States, to carry the project of the purchase of the islands to a successful conclusion; and it is not likely that the city, which originated and carried to triumphant success the Centennial Exposition, with its millions of risk and expenditure, will falter or stumble when the prize to be ultimately won is the restoration of commercial supremacy to the Port of Philadelphia.

Another word, now, in regard to a matter which concerns the comfort and convenience of each and all of us as individuals. Rule 14 of the joint rules of Select and Common Councils provides that stated meetings of Councils shall be held on the first and third Thursdays of each month at 3 o'clock P. M. Rule 30 of Common Council provides that stated meetings shall be held on days fixed for the same at 3 o'clock P. M., and shall adjourn at 7 o'clock P. M. Personally, I am perfectly satisfied to abide by these rules as they now exist, if it be the pleasure of Councils to continue them; but the city has grown and extended so rapidly in every direction, since their adoption, that I think it would be wise to reconstruct them so that our stated meetings shall be held every Thursday, and shall continue only from three until six o'clock. Many of our members reside at a long distance from the State House, and it is always inconvenient and frequently impossible for them to remain during the last hour of the session. The result is that much of our most important business is transacted by a bare quorum of the Chamber, and sometimes under conditions which are discouraging and unsatisfactory. If we should have our meetings every Thursday from three until six o'clock, I think the members would always be willing to remain until the close of the session, important legislation would never be either hurried or long delayed, and the necessity for special sessions would be entirely obviated. A full Chamber now consists of 113 members; and the mere calling of the roll upon the final passage of bills consumes a great deal of time. I commit the consideration of this question of a change in the rules to your best judgment, and in the event of your non-concurrence with the views I have expressed I shall, of course, cheerfully acquiesce and co-operate with you in carrying out our rules as they now exist.

I congratulate you, gentlemen, upon the prospect which is spread out before us for another year of useful and important public work, and beg to assure you that in return for the confidence which you have again bestowed upon me, I shall give you the best services of which I am capable, without favor, fear, prejudice, or partiality.

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR.

Philadelphia, March 28, 1889.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I have the honor to return herewith, without my approval, an ordinance entitled “An Ordinance to authorize the opening of Thirty-first street from Market street to Chestnut street, in the Twenty-seventh Ward.”

This ordinance provides that, immediately upon the reduction, by the Bureau of Surveys, of the width of this street to sixty feet, the usual notice that said street will be required for public use shall be given. Whilst it is undoubtedly true that a street running from Market street to Chestnut street, somewhere between the Schuylkill River and Thirty-second street, would be of great accommodation to the public, there has been so much and so varied legislation touching this particular street that any future action should be so carefully considered that no additional complications would be added to those already existing by reason of alterations and changes made during the past thirty-six years in connection with its present location. I beg to suggest that, before final action looking to the opening of Thirty-first street between Market street and Chestnut street, be taken, that the whole subject have further and more careful consideration than is given it in the accompanying ordinance.

I am, respectfully,

EDWIN H. FITLER,
Mayor.

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR.

Philadelphia, April 4, 1889.

To the Select and Common Council
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I have the honor to return herewith without my approval an ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance to authorize the macadamizing of Church lane from Oxford road to Second street, in the Twenty-third Ward, as a country road fifteen feet wide in the centre."

This ordinance provides that the street named shall be macadamized at the expense of the general taxpayers, and not at the expense of the properties fronting upon the street, as is the custom and also the law in all other parts of the City. An additional reason why I am not able to approve this ordinance is the fact that Item 4 of the appropriation to the Bureau of Highways, against which the thousand dollars which this work is to cost, is to be charged, is entirely exhausted under contracts now in force and under which work is being done at this time.

I have had the honor to call the attention of your Honorable Bodies to this matter of street improvements out of general taxation, and not at the expense of the property owners to be benefited by the same, upon several occasions heretofore, and for the reasons given at those times, in addition to those mentioned above, I return the accompanying ordinance.

I am, respectfully,
EDWIN H. FITLER,
Mayor.

APPENDIX No. 12.

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR.

Philadelphia, April 8, 1889.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I have the honor to return herewith without my approval an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled An Ordinance to authorize the paving of Fountain, Justice and Thirty-first streets," approved March 28, 1888.

The ordinance sought to be amended provides for the paving of Thirty-first street, from Ridge avenue to Dauphin street, in the Twenty-eighth Ward, with granite, Pennsylvania or Lambertville blocks and gravel joints, cost of intersections not to exceed one hundred and twenty-five (125) dollars. In compliance with this ordinance a contract was made on June 1, 1888, between Thomas Cunningham and the City of Philadelphia to pave the said streets, the contract providing inter alia that the contractor should be paid for the intersections of cross streets the sum of two dollars and forty-seven cents ($2.47) per square yard, and further that the said City should not be liable for an amount exceeding the sum of one hundred and twenty-five (125) dollars. Under this contract the work has been completed, and the contractor has either been paid the amount of his contract or will receive a warrant for such payment upon application to the proper bureau. The accompanying ordinance in the first section proposes to increase the amount to be paid the contractor from one hundred and twenty-five (125) dollars to five hundred and seventy (570) dollars, and in the second section attempts a legal impossibility: to set aside the obligation of this contract in the following phraseology: "That the amount of the contract entered into by the City and Thomas Cunningham for paving said Thirty-first street be extended to said amount of five hundred and seventy (570) dollars.

The contractor having agreed to do the work at the figures first named, I know of no reason why the amount to be paid him should be increased nearly five hundred per cent.

I am, respectfully,
EDWIN H. FITLER,
Mayor.

APPENDIX No. 13.

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR.

Philadelphia, April 8, 1889.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I have the honor to return herewith without my approval an ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance to authorize the repaving of Second, Carpenter, Catharine, Bainbridge, Congress, Union, New, Crown, Locust, Brighton, Barker, Cherry, Water, Front, Buttonwood, Brown, Mount Vernon, Twenty-second, Swain, Lawrence, Philip, Bodine, Hanover, Palmer, Diamond, Hart, Main, Levering, Orthodox, Thirty-ninth, Filbert, Somerset, Federal, Thirty-seventh, Broad, Oxford, Fitzwater, Kater, Tioga, and Cayuga streets, Delancy place, St. Joseph's, Cheltenham, Saunders, and East Susquehanna avenues, and to authorize the construction of sewers and the laying of gas and water pipe in any of said streets where the same do not exist."

The sum of three hundred thousand (300,000) dollars heretofore appropriated to the Department of Public Works, to be used for repaving with improved pavement streets unoccupied by passenger railway tracks, is so large that its proper expenditure should be a matter of grave concern. Whilst it is very commendable for members of your Honorable Bodies to secure all public improvements possible for the particular wards represented by them, I conceive it to be their duty as well, to see to it that the limited amount available for such improvements should not be wasted in work so distributed, because of ward lines, that comparatively little good will result to the City generally. The work to be done should be concentrated in localities much traveled for either business or pleasure and upon streets already partly improved, or upon others that are public thoroughfares.

The accompanying ordinance meets both these points in that it directs the completion of the repaving of several streets upon which work of this character has been heretofore done, but it is defective in both these directions touching by far the larger number of the streets named in it, and should all these be paved in the mode prescribed by it, it would be very difficult, after the money is gone, to show results equal to the amount expended. A glance at the map will show the folly of distributing this money for work in a few squares here and there without the slightest connection with other streets already paved or to be paved with a better class of pavement. The ordinance is also objectionable because it directs the repaving of streets with material different from that with which adjoining parts of the same street are already paved, and it directs the paving of other streets in the heart of the City with material altogether unfit for the wear and tear of heavy business traffic. The ordinance is also objectionable because it provides for the repaving of at least one street, a portion of which has never been paved before, and upon which the pavements to be laid should be paid for by the properties fronting upon the street. The ordinance is also in violation of the law in that it directs the doing of work, amounting, according to the estimate of the Bureau of Highways to about thirty thousand (30,000) dollars more than the money appropriated for the whole work. The ordinance is also contrary to law in that it attempts to direct in detail the expenditure of money heretofore appropriated for work generally. Upon this last point permit me to ask your consideration of the opinion of the City Solicitor given on March 13, 1889, to Mr. William McCoach, a member of Common Council from the Thirtieth Ward, a copy of which is hereto attached. Did the law permit the approval of some and the non-approval of other parts of an ordinance like this, it would have given me pleasure to have signed such portions of this ordinance as refer to streets where immediate advantage would result to the general public from the expenditure of the City's money, as it is always my desire to concur with the conclusions reached by you in the passage of ordinances for any purpose.

I am, respectfully,

EDWIN H. FITLER,

Mayor.

LAW DEPARTMENT.

Philadelphia, March 13, 1889.

William McCoach, Esq.,
Common Councilman, Thirtieth Ward.

DEAR SIR:—I am in receipt of your letter of the 8th inst., in which you say that Councils have appropriated some $300,000 dollars for the repaving of streets unoccupied by passenger railway companies, and you desire to know whether or not Councils have any right to select the streets to be repaved, or is the power of selection alone vested in the Director of the Department of Public Works.

In answer I have but to say that Councils in my opinion have a right when they make an appropriation for such a purpose as that above referred to, to designate in the ordinance the streets to be paved, but if Councils do not designate the streets, the power of selection may be exercised by the Director of the Department of Public Works.

Yours, very truly,

(Signed) CHARLES F. WARWICK,
City Solicitor.

RESOLUTION

Relative to grade crossings.

WHEREAS, The continuous increase in the population of large cities has made the crossing of streets at grade by steam railroads a serious peril to life and property; and,

WHEREAS, In Great Britain, Germany and other foreign countries and Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, and others of the United States, the further creation of such crossings at grade in large cities is prohibited, and in many cases laws have been enacted for the gradual abolition of existing grade crossings; and,

WHEREAS, It is eminently proper that the danger to life and limb should, as suggested by the Governor of the Commonwealth in his last message to the Legislature, be minimized in the large cities of this State, and finally avoided; Therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Common Council of the City of Philadelphia, That in the judgment of Common Council of the City of Philadelphia, the safety of the public imperatively requires that no additional grade crossings of streets in large cities be permitted by railroads operated by steam, except in cases where the avoidance of such grade crossings is not reasonably practicable, and that in such cases such grade crossings should be permitted only upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of a competent court, and upon such conditions as to their use as said court may prescribe, and as the public safety may require.

Resolved, That Common Council of the City of Philadelphia hereby approve Bill 52 of the House of Representatives, now before the Senate for consideration, with an amendment permitting grade crossings only in the cases and upon the conditions hereinbefore recited, and earnestly request the Senators representing the City of Philadelphia, and other members of the Senate of the Commonwealth, to vote for the passage of the said bill.

SECTION 1. The Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia do ordain, That whoever by himself, or by his servant or agent, or as the servant or agent of any person, sells, exchanges, or delivers, or has in his custody or possession, with intent to sell or exchange, or exposes or offers for sale as pure milk, any milk from which the cream or any part thereof has been removed, or which has been watered, adulterated, or changed in any respect by the addition of water or other substance, shall be liable to the penalties hereinafter provided in this ordinance.

SECT. 2. SECT. 5. ## OFFICE OF THE MAYOR.

Philadelphia, May 16, 1889.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I have the honor to herewith transmit for your consideration a communication from Louis Wagner, Director of the Department of Public Works, concerning the matter of defective footways, curbstones, etc., attention to which was called by a resolution of your Honorable Bodies on the second instant.

I am, respectfully,

EDWIN H. FITLER,
Mayor.

---

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS.

Philadelphia, May 10, 1889.

HON. EDWIN H. FITLER,
Mayor of Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR:—On the second instant the Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia passed a resolution requesting the Department of Public Works to give attention to the number of defective footways, curb-stones, etc., because of which the City has been held in large damages under frequent suits in our Courts.

I have the honor to report, and to request that you will transmit this report to Councils for their consideration, that this subject has been one of much anxiety to me, but that it has been impossible until now to arrange for any final and definite settlement.

The Chief of the Bureau of Highways reports that the number of footway notices served were as follows:

1887—5,057.

1888—9,124.

1889—first three months, 4,063.

Until this year it was practically impossible, by reason of the peculiar legislation governing this subject and the insufficient appropriation for the work to be done by the City if the parties notified fail to repair their sidewalks, to compel compliance with the notices served.

Under the ordinance now in force it is believed that the work will be done, and that the complaints which have heretofore resulted in so many suits will be to a very great extent, if not altogether, removed.

Yours truly,

LOUIS WAGNER,

Director.

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR.

Philadelphia, June 6, 1889.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I have the honor to herewith transmit for your consideration a communication from Louis Wagner, Director of the Department of Public Works, concerning the question of licensing omnibuses to be run on Broad street, from Columbia avenue to Huntingdon street, west of Diamond street, to Fairmount Park, and on Broad street, from Butler to Jackson street.

I am, respectfully,

EDWIN H. FITLER,
Mayor.

---

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS.

Philadelphia, June 1, 1889.

HON. EDWIN H. FITLER,

Mayor of the City of Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR:—In March and April last I received several applications for the licensing of omnibuses to be run on Broad street, from Columbia avenue to Huntingdon street, and west on Diamond street, to Fairmount Park, and on Broad street, from Butler to Jackson street.

Deeming it to be not for the interests of the public to issue such licenses I communicated with the City Solicitor upon the question of my power to refuse to issue them. He informs me, under date of April 12th and May 28th, that under the ordinance of Councils governing this matter I have the power to grant but not to refuse the licenses asked for, and that all power to refuse is vested in Councils by amendment to the ordinances now in force and regulating privileges of this kind.

Impressed with the thought that public omnibuses run upon Broad street and upon Diamond street would be a hindrance to the public rather than an accommodation, I am not willing to direct the issuing of these licenses until Councils have had an opportunity to consider whether a few streets in the City should not be reserved to the general public for driving purposes, or whether they should all be occupied by either passenger railway tracks or lines of public stages.

I have the honor to request that you will ask Councils to direct the proper Committee to examine into this matter and to report such legislation, if any, proper in the premises.

Yours truly,

LOUIS WAGNER,

Director.

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR.

Philadelphia, June 6, 1889.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I have the honor to herewith transmit for your consideration a communication from Louis Wagner, Director of the Department of Public Works, requesting an additional appropriation to the Bureau of Surveys, to pay for expenses of the Eighth, Eleventh, and Thirteenth Survey Districts.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS.

HON. EDWIN H. FITLER,

Mayor of the City of Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR:—I have the honor to request that you will ask Councils to make an additional appropriation amounting to $4,172, to the Bureau of Surveys, to pay for expenses of the Eighth, Eleventh, and Thirteenth Survey

Districts. The work in these districts is so large that additional assistance is required, all of which will be paid for out of the receipts of the particular district, the earnings of these districts being largely in excess of the expenditures, even with the increase in the number of assistants required to promptly discharge the public business.

These districts, as stated in my Second Annual Report, will prove largely profitable to the City Treasury in the excess of receipts over expenditures.

Yours truly,

LOUIS WAGNER,
Director.

AN ORDINANCE

To make an additional appropriation to Item 4, of the "Ordinance to make an appropriation to the Department of Public Works, Bureau of Surveys, for the year 1889, to pay salaries and expenses in the Eighth, Eleventh, and Thirteenth Survey Districts.

SECTION 1. The Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia do ordain, That the sum of four thousand one hundred and seventy-two (4,172) dollars be, and the same is hereby appropriated to the Department of Public Works, Bureau of Surveys, as follows: For salaries of assistants, expenses, rent, tools, instruments, carriage hire, horse keep, and incidentals, in the Eighth Survey District, the sum of one thousand (1,000) dollars; in the Eleventh Survey District, the sum of six hundred and seventy-two (672) dollars; and in the Thirteenth Survey District, the sum of two thousand five hundred (2,500) dollars: Provided, That the fees earned in each District shall amount to the salaries over and above the expenses of the office, and that work done for any Department, Bureau, Board, or Commission of the City of Philadelphia, shall be taken to be fees earned within the intent of this ordinance. Warrants to be drawn in accordance with existing ordinances.

APPENDIX No. 86.

Philadelphia, June 6, 1889.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—The Committee on Finance respectfully report that they have considered an ordinance to provide for the construction of a bridge over the Reading railroad at Second street, in the Twenty-fifth ward, and the same having been approved by the Committee on Surveys, as well as by a sub-committee of this Committee, whose report is hereto appended, submit the annexed ordinance to provide for its construction, and recommend its passage.

Thomas M. Thompson (Ch'n), Chas. Roberts, D. T. Jenks, Wencel Hartman, Elias P. Smithers, Geo. B. Edwards, Charles F. Iseminger, Thomas T. Rose, Thomas M. Hammett, Thomas Green, John H. Graham, Edwin S. Stuart, Samuel Hart, Edw. W. Patton, James A. Freeman, Peter Monroe.

Philadelphia, May 16, 1889.

To the Chairman and Members of the Committee on Finance.

GENTLEMEN:—The members of the Sub-Committee on Finance to whom was referred the bill entitled “An Ordinance to provide for the construction of a bridge over the Reading Railroad at Second street, in the Twenty-fifth Ward, respectfully report that they have considered the matter fully, and are of the opinion that it would be to the advantage of the City to accept the proposition of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company attached hereto, in which they propose to construct a bridge 216 feet clear span on the line of Second street, across the Richmond branch. The structure to be on stone abutments, with iron floor system covered with four inch oak plank, with ample driveways, 20 feet in the clear, and two sidewalks, each eight (8) feet clear.

The bridge would give a clearance of over eighteen (18) feet over top of rails of the existing tracks. The Railroad Company estimates the cost of the bridge as from $42,000 to $45,000, and offer to pay one-half of the cost. In the bill submitted to your Sub-Committee, it provides for an appropriation of $23,000 for a bridge, which would be so small as compared with the one proposed as to be inadequate for the purpose. Second street at this point is largely used by pedestrians and teams. Frequent and long blockades occur to the great annoyance of the public, and the passing and re-passing of trains is a constant menace to those who are obliged to use Second street at this point as a highway.

The construction of this bridge will do away with another of the grade crossings, an object which must meet the approval of every one.

When the railroad company makes such a proposition as the one in question, your Committee feel that they cannot too strongly urge its acceptance, and we therefore report the matter back, and ask for your favorable consideration of the same.

PHILADELPHIA AND READING RAILROAD.

Philadelphia, May 11, 1889.

MR. THOMAS GREEN,

4455 Frankford avenue, Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR :—In answer to the proposition of your Committee, that this Company join with the City in the expense of building a bridge across our Richmond Branch at Second street, I reply :

We are willing to build at that point such a structure as our Engineering Department and that of the City think the necessities of the locality demand, in the way of a through truss pin connected iron bridge, 216 feet clear span on line of Second street, built on stone abutments, with iron floor system covered with four inch oak plank ; width of drive-way about 20 feet in clear ; two sidewalks each 8 feet wide in clear.

The bridge when erected is to give a clearance of 18.5 feet over top of rails of the tracks now existing, or which may hereafter be constructed within our 216 feet right of way. The approximate cost of this bridge complete will be about from $42,000 to $45,000, one-half of which sum our Company will contribute.

Yours truly,

A. A. McLEOD,

Vice-President and General Manager.

LAW DEPARTMENT.

Philadelphia, May 29, 1889.

JOHN ECKSTEIN, ESQ.,

Secretary of Committee on Finance.

DEAR SIR:—The ordinance referred to me for my opinion entitled "An Ordinance to refund to the Trustees of the West Philadelphia Friends' Meeting money paid for constructing sewers," would, I think, be invalid. The bills for constructing the sewer in front of the property on the west side of Forty-second street and north side of Powelton avenue, are approved by the City Surveyor, and are made payable to the Contractor, C. Kennedy, and the contractor's receipt for the amount of the bills appears upon the copies of the bills furnished.

It is quite probable that the Friends' Meeting could have successfully resisted the payment of these bills, if suit had been brought in the name of the City to the use of the contractor, but the money paid in mistake of the legal rights of the Friends' Meeting to the contractor who built the sewer, could not be recovered back, nor have the City authorities any right to devote any portion of the money raised by taxation to refund to the Friends' Meeting the amount paid by them to the contractor who built the sewer.

Yours very truly,

CHAS. F. WARWICK,

City Solicitor.

RESOLUTION

To discharge the Committee on Finance from the consideration of an ordinance to refund to the Trustees of the West Philadelphia Friends' Meeting the amount paid for the construction of sewers in front of their place of worship.

Resolved, by the Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia, That the Committee on Finance be discharged from the further consideration of an ordinance to refund to the Trustees of the West Philadelphia Friends' Meeting $389.99, paid for the construction of sewers in front of their place of worship, at Forty-second street and Powelton avenue, Twenty-fourth Ward.

APPENDIX No. 98.

Philadelphia, June 4, 1889.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:— We, your Committee on Surveys, to whom was referred the accompanying sundry ordinances to place upon the City plan Arizona, Bancroft, Carlisle, Clarence, Cleveland, Darien, Fremont, Gerhard, Gratz, Lisbon, Lippincott, and Mead streets, and Scott's lane, beg leave to report that these streets are not less than thirty feet wide and advantageously located; that most of them now are, and the rest will be, speedily improved. A suitable proviso will secure the City against claims for the ground taken. Such changes have been made in the names as seem advisable.

We submit an ordinance herewith, and recommend its passage.

AN ORDINANCE

To place upon the City plan Arizona, Bancroft, Carlisle, Clarence, Cleveland, Darien, Fremont, Gerhard, Gratz, Lisbon, Lippincott and Mead streets, and Scott's lane.

SECTION 1. The Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia do ordain, That the Department of Public Works be, and is hereby authorized to place upon the City plan: Arizona street, thirty feet wide, from Twenty-fifth to Twenty-sixth street, in the Twenty-eighth Ward. Bancroft street, thirty feet wide, from Clearfield to Lippincott street, in the Twenty-eighth Ward. Carlisle street, thirty-five feet wide, from Clearfield to Rush street, in the Twenty-eighth Ward. Clarence street, not less than thirty feet wide, from Twenty-fifth to Twenty-sixth street, in the Twenty-eighth Ward. Cleveland street, thirty feet wide, from Susquehanna avenue to Dauphin street, in the Twenty-eighth Ward. Darien street, thirty feet wide, from Jackson to Wolf street, in the First Ward. Freemont street, thirty feet wide, from Leamy to Ormes street, in the Thirty-third Ward. Gerhard street, thirty feet wide, from Moore to Mifflin street, in the First Ward. Gratz street, thirty feet wide, from Susquehanna avenue to Dauphin street, in the Twenty-eighth Ward. ## APPENDIX No. 99.

Philadelphia, June 4, 1889.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—We, your Committee on Surveys, to whom was referred the accompanying ordinances to change the names of Moyamensing avenue and Mehl street, beg leave to report: That Moyamensing avenue, at Snyder avenue, assumes a new direction so nearly parallel to the east and west lying streets, as to require the same system of house numbering, while from Snyder avenue northward, its general direction is north and south. This will lead to duplicate numbers in the same avenue and to great annoyance, which it is proposed to prevent by substituting the name of West Moyamensing avenue.

We also report that the name of Mehl street, from its similarity to Mill street in the same vicinity, is objectionable. The name of Seymour street is preferable, being almost in a direct line with the present Mehl street.

We approve of these changes and recommend the passage of the ordinance.

AN ORDINANCE

To change the names of Moyamensing avenue and Mehl street.

SECTION 1. The Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia do ordain, That the name of Moyamensing avenue, from its intersection with Fourth street, below Snyder avenue, in the First Ward, southwestward, be changed to West Moyamensing avenue, and that the name of Mehl street, from Germantown avenue to Wakefield street, in the Twenty-second Ward, be changed to Seymour street.

APPENDIX No. 100.

Philadelphia, June 4, 1889.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—We, your Committee on Surveys, to whom was referred the accompanying ordinance, to revise the lines and grades between Germantown avenue, Wissahickon avenue, and Queen and Hansbury streets, in the Twenty-second Ward, beg leave to report that the present system of grades dates from a time before the building of the Chestnut Hill Branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad; that operation has much changed the conditions, and a revision is imperative. In order to secure proper drainage some of the streets should be laid out so as to follow near the natural water courses, so that the water may have an unobstructed flow during freshets and heavy rains. The rectangular system of streets crossing valleys diagonally makes embankments and basins which hem in the water. Unless a revision is made speedily, and new streets established and opened in the vicinity of Queen Street Station before buildings are erected, a number of "dishes" will be created, which will cause a great deal of trouble hereafter. A new street should be laid out nearly parallel to the railroad, which would leave an easy grade from Hunting Park avenue to Queen street, and should be extended at least as far as Penn street, which is destined to be a very important thoroughfare. It is difficult to make a correct estimate of damages for taking of unimproved ground. It may amount to $12,000, but will be of great public benefit, in fact, a necessity, and also of advantage to a considerable number of private property owners, which, under the law, would be assessed by a jury towards paying part of the cost.

We recommend the passage of this ordinance.

Thomas L. Hicks (Ch'n), Geo. L. Horn, Frank Schanz, F. M. Harris, Wm. P. Becker, W. H. James, James Hagan, Isaac D. Hetzell, W. Thornton, Chas. W. Savidge, Jos. H. Brown, Chas. F. Iseminger, D. C. Cleaver, W. McCoach, John O. Taxis.

AN ORDINANCE

To revise the lines and grades of territory between Germantown ayenue and Wissahickon ayenue, and between Queen street and Hansbury street, in the Twenty-second Ward, and to make a topographical survey of the same.

SECTION 1. The Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia do ordain, That the Department of Public Works be, and is hereby authorized to revise the lines and grades of streets between Germantown ayenue and Wissahickon ayenue, and between Queen street and Hansbury street, in the Twenty-second Ward, and to make a topographical survey of the same.

APPENDIX No. 101.

Philadelphia, June 4, 1889.

The the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—We, your Committee on Surveys, to whom was referred the accompanying ordinance to construct a bridge over Rittenhouse street, in the Twenty-second Ward beg leave to report that the bridge is to be constructed entirely on the property of the Railroad Company and at their expense. There will be no damages or injury either to the City or to owners of property, and will add greatly to the facilities of the Railroad Company for promptly handling the freight business at that point.

The plans and work are to be subject to the approval of the proper officers of the City, and we therefore return the ordinance with our approval and recommend its passage.

AN ORDINANCE

To authorize the construction of a bridge over Rittenhouse street, in the Twenty-second Ward, for siding connection of the Philadelphia, Germantown and Chestnut Hill Railroad.

SECTION 1. The Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia do ordain, That the Philadelphia, German-town and Chestnut Hill Railroad Company be, and is hereby authorized to erect a single track bridge over Rittenhouse street, in the Twenty-second Ward, at a point to the northward of the present crossing of the main tracks of the said railroad, for the purposes of permitting a siding connection to reach the yard at Cheltenham avenue, for commercial uses. Said bridge and abutments to be erected at the sole cost of the Railroad Company; the City of Philadelphia to be at no expense whatever in connection therewith. Plans and specifications to be approved by the Director of the Department of Public Works, and bridge to be constructed under the approval of the Board of Highway Supervisors, in accordance with said plans. That the sum of fifty (50) dollars shall be first paid into the City Treasury to pay for the printing of this ordinance.

Philadelphia June 6, 1889.

To the Presidents and Members of the Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—The Committee on Municipal Government, to which was referred the proposition of the Pleasant Hill Land Association, to dedicate to the City of Philadelphia a piece of ground, fronting on the Delaware river, in the Twenty-third Ward; Provided, The City will maintain the ground for a public park forever, respectfully report that they referred the same to a Sub-Committee (whose report is hereto appended), and in pursuance of said report, submit for your consideration the annexed ordinance, accepting the plot of ground, and recommend its passage.

Andrew Zane (Ch'n), Thomas Meehan, Chas. Roberts, J. Dallas Hall, Ernest H. Davis, W. Thornton, W. McMurray, W. H. Baker, Thos. Wagner, Jr., James Kenton, Thomas Green, James Morrow, A. Jackson Hook, David Klein.

Philadelphia, March 27, 1889.

TO HON. WM. M. SMITH,

President of Common Council.

DEAR SIR:—The Pleasant Hill Land Association desire to dedicate to the City of Philadelphia a piece of ground fronting on the Delaware river, in the Twenty-third Ward of the City of Philadelphia, (adjoining which they have laid out and sold two thousand and ten lots), provided the City will maintain the ground for a public Park forever, and will, within two years from the date of the Deed of dedication, improve the same by planting trees, laying out walks, etc. The ground is marked "Park" on the plan of the Association herewith enclosed.

Yours truly,

MARTIN H. STUTZBACH,

Solicitor for Pleasant Hill Land Association.

---

To the Chairman and Members of the Committee on Municipal Government:

GENTLEMEN:—Your Sub-Committee, to whom was submitted the offer of the Pleasant Hill Land Association, to dedicate to the City a plot of land for a Public Park, on condition that the City will ever maintain it as such, and will, within two years from dedication, improve the same by planting trees, laying out walks, etc., respectfully report that they have examined the proposition and find that the plot has a frontage of about nine hundred and fifty (950) feet on the Delaware river, and, to low water mark, contains about five and one-third ( $5\frac{1}{3}$ ) acres. About half of this is high "bluff," sandy and gravelly land; the other, from high to low water mark, would have to be filled in and protected by a wharf. A low estimate by a member of the committee places the value of the plot, in its present unimproved condition, at about eleven thousand (11,000) dollars. To wharf, and fill in the whole, would probably cost twenty-five thousand (25,000) dollars.

As a small Park, for the future, it is admirably located, and is fully within the spirit of the ordinance requiring plots to be located before building improvements approach; but your sub-committee could not recommend its acceptance, conditional on any great expenditure within two years.

If the owners would dedicate it to the city, leaving it wholly to future Councils to decide when and how it should be improved, your sub-committee would recommend its acceptance.

Since the above was written the annexed letter has been received, and your committee recommend the acceptance of the plot, and that the chairman of the committee be authorized to draw up an ordinance and submit it to Councils accordingly.

They request that, at an early day, the City of Philadelphia will improve the same by planting trees, laying out walks, etc.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I have the honor to herewith transmit for your consideration, a communication from Louis Wagner, Director of the Department of Public Works, requesting the passage of an ordinance providing for the payment of bill of B. I am, respectfully,

EDWIN H. FITLER,

Mayor.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS.

Philadelphia, June 13, 1889.

HON. EDWIN H. FITLER,

Mayor of the City of Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR:—Some two years since a contract was made between the City and M. C. Hong, for the macadamizing of Moyamensing avenue to Penrose Ferry Bridge. The work was not done according to contract; the Department refused to approve the warrants, and the contractor brought suit for the money claimed by him. He secured a verdict for a sum $8875.63 less than the amount of his contract. The money appropriated, by ordinance of councils, to pay for this work has, by ordinance of Councils, been transferred and expended for other purposes.

Moyamensing avenue being in an unsatisfactory condition I arranged, under the provisions of the contract with M. C. Hong, to have it completed at the expense of the contractor. This is now done, and B. M. & J. F. Shanley present a bill for $10670.00, and ask that it be paid.

I have the honor to request that you will ask Councils to pass a proper ordinance to that effect, so that settlement may be made with the new contractors, and suit brought against the delinquent contractor and his sureties for the sum expended by the City, in excess of the amount due him.

Yours truly,

LOUIS WAGNER,

Director.

TO THE FINANCE COMMITTEE:

The Sub-Committee to which was referred the resolution in regard to the State tax on loans of the City of Philadelphia, respectfully reports: That by resolution of Councils (see Journal of Common Council, Vol., I 1884 page 188 of Appendix, and page 294 of the Journal), Mr. James W. M. Newlin became “special counsel for the City of Philadelphia in resisting the claim of the State for taxes alleged to be due for the years 1877, 1878, 1879, and 1880, and in securing for the City directly or through the City Treasurer's account, an allowance, or credit, or offset on account of taxes heretofore paid to the Commonwealth, or accruing either in the account for tax on personal property or on bonded indebtedness."

From that time on Mr. Newlin has continued to press the claims of the City thereunder, and has from time to time, filed various appeals in regard to the tax on City loans. Amongst others an appeal was filed by him in December, 1888 for the year 1887, signed by the late City Treasurer, Bell for a credit, inter alia for State tax on loans owned by Pennsylvania corporations. Meanwhile Mr. Newlin was engaged in suits for other clients in which points were raised by virtue of the decision of which it was claimed that the City of Philadelphia would be entitled to a credit for such taxes. Meanwhile, also other corporations made similar appeals, and finally the Supreme Court disposed of them all in February, 1889 by deciding that bonds owned by a Pennsylvania corporation are exempt, and under this decision City Treasurer Bardsley at the request of Mr. Newlin put in the claim for the City for the year 1888, which by a credit settlement made April 29, 1889, was allowed for the sum of nine thousand six hundred and eighty-five (9,685) dollars and eighty-seven (87) cents. This credit is for the year 1888. No allowance has yet been made to the City on the application for prior years.

It appears from the report of the fiscal agent of the City, under this allowance, the City will save for the year 1888 and subsequently on the basis of the present holdings the sum of ninety-six thousand six hundred and eighty-five (96,685) dollars and eighty-seven (87) cents as the average maturity of the bonds now exempted is ten years.

The amounts saved for 1888 and 1889, viz.: nineteen thousand three hundred and seventy-one (19,371) dollars and seventy-four (74) cents are now in the City Treasury.

Your Sub-Committee reports herewith "An Ordinance making an appropriation to Mr. James W. M. Newlin of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (1,937) dollars, for his professional services herein." This fee will be in full for all present and future savings by reason of the exemption of bonds owned by Pennsylvania corporations for 1888 and subsequently.

As to the right of the State to exact a tax on the balance of the outstanding loans of the City, less other exemptions heretofore allowed, it is the duty of Frank F. Bell, late City Treasurer, on or before the twenty-eighth day of this present month, June 1889, to take an appeal to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County, and to perfect said appeal by entering security.

It will be the duty of the present City Treasurer to take similar appeals from future settlements in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance of December 24, 1878, Section 1, page 248 and retain not less than five thousand (5,000) dollars from each year's tax.

OFFICE OF CITY TREASURER.

Philadelphia, May 23, 1889.

THEO. M. ETTING, ESQ.,

Chairman, Sub-Committee of Finance.

DEAR SIR:—I herewith submit:

(1) A copy of the report to me of the fiscal agent of the City, showing the holdings by Pennsylvania corporations, in their own right, of loans of the City of Philadelphia, together with the dates of maturity, upon which the gross savings to the City to the average date of maturity, ten years, on the basis of the present holdings, will be $96,858.70.

(2) The actual saving for 1888, by the credit settlement made by the Auditor General of the State, April 29, 1889, is $9,685.87, and this money is now in the City Treasury. The saving for the current year will be greater than last, because many of the corporations have increased their holdings.

(3) Mr. Bell signed an appeal which may be required in the future, and he has aided the City every way in his power to accomplish the result.

Respectfully,

JOHN BARDSLEY,

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS.

Philadelphia, April 17, 1889.

GENERAL LOUIS WAGNER,

Director Department of Public Works.

DEAR SIR:—The object for which the first ordinance was drawn is set forth in the preamble, and the cases there presented are perhaps familiar to yourself. I enclose bills for the work, one of which, that for Front street, is for 68 cents more than the amount named in the ordinance.

With reference to the ordinance to pay the Messrs. McNichol for repairs to paved streets, I would say that Messrs. D. & P. McNichol entered into a contract with the City, May 2d, 1888, for repairs to paved streets in the Second, Third, Fourth, and Fifth Districts during 1888, it being impossible at that time to determine the exact amount of money which would be required in the several districts, and as some fixed sum was required to be attached to the contracts, an amount supposed to approximate to that required was inserted in each of them.

When, however, work had been done aggregating these fixed sums, there was found to be a number of streets in such bad condition that it became a necessity to have them repaired without delay, and citizens and members of Councils were urgent to have them done.

This the Messrs. McNichol consented to do, relying upon the future action of the City to pay them for this excess of the original amount set aside for them.

In obtaining their bills from the several district surveyors, the latter included all the work done, thus requiring the excess to be deducted from the footings of the bills, that warrants might be drawn for the correct amounts.

As soon as possible after the above mentioned contracts were exhausted, and Councils had made further appropriation for the work, street repairs were re-advertised for, and the Messrs. McNichol were again the lowest bidders, and the work done by them under their second contract did not exhaust the amount set apart therefor, sufficient remaining to have paid the deficiency on the bills above referred to; but as the Controller did not feel justified in paying them, as they were in excess of the contract, the amount merged; hence the ordinance now referred to you was introduced into Councils.

I enclose copies of the bills for the work in question, showing the amounts deducted from them to meet the amount of contracts, and for the payment of which the ordinance provides.

In making up the amount of $2,181.80 (or $2,181.82 as it should be), there has been included a bill for $89.40 which was for finishing out the work of repaving Cherry streets, between Nineteenth and Twentieth streets, and which it would be more proper to include in the first ordinance.

Yours truly,

[Signed]

GEORGE A. BULLOCK,

Chief Bureau of Highways.

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR.

Philadelphia, June 17, 1889.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I have the honor to herewith transmit for your consideration a communication from Mr. John Baird, in which he offers to present to the City, a model of the Centennial Exhibition of 1876, which he has caused to be constructed, as a lasting souvenir of that great event in the history of our City and country.

I have the honor to request that you will pass the necessary ordinance authorizing the acceptance of this gift, directing the proper disposition thereof, and tendering the thanks of the City to the donor.

I am respectfully,

EDWIN H. FITLER,

Mayor.

---

No. 1705 NORTH BROAD STREET.

Philadelphia, June 15, 1889.

HON. EDWIN H. FITLER,

Mayor of the City of Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR:—I have the honor to offer through you to the City of Philadelphia, a model of the Centennial Exhibition of 1876, which I have caused to be constructed as a lasting souvenir of that great event in the history of the City and country, and, indeed, of the world. It comprises an accurate reproduction in model, not only of every one of the Centennial buildings, structures, statues and other objects, and of the grounds occupied by them, but of such surroundings, outside the Centennial enclosure, as serve to show the transportation facilities of 1876, and the location of the buildings with respect to existing landmarks in the Park.

This miniature has been prepared with the greatest care, to preserve as well the general appearance of the buildings as their architectural features down to the smallest detail. The scale is sixteen feet to the inch.

I offer it as a gift to the City of Philadelphia, on the condition that the City shall provide for it a suitable permanent place of deposit, where it may be maintained on free exhibition.

The model is made of durable materials, so that it may last for centuries, and, when properly housed, will require no repairs or care-taking other than that provided by a watchman.

It has been designed to provide for future generations a part of the educational influence of the greatest exhibition ever held in this country, and I respectfully ask your Honor to convey to City Councils this tender of it as a gift to the City, with such recommendations as you may deem proper.

When notified that a suitable place has been provided for its permanent home, I will, at my own expense, have it removed there, and set up as a permanent exhibit. In the meantime, it will remain where it has been built, in the hall of the Spring Garden Institute, where I propose to have it exhibited for the benefit of the Institute.

Yours very truly,

JOHN BAIRD.

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR.

Philadelphia June 21, 1889.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I have the honor to herewith transmit for your consideration, a communication from Robert Alexander, Esq., Assistant City Solicitor, concerning a mortgage made by the Good Intent Steam Fire Company to the Corporation of Kensington for five hundred dollars.

The present owner of the property desires to pay off this mortgage, but it cannot be found, and cannot be satisfied of record without authority for so doing.

I have, therefore, the honor to request the passage of an ordinance authorizing a satisfaction or release of said mortgage to be given.

I am, respectfully,

EDWIN H. FITLER,
Mayor.

LAW DEPARTMENT.

Philadelphia, June 20, 1889.

HON. EDWIN H. FITLER,
Mayor of Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR:—Many years ago the Good Intent Steam Fire Engine Company made a mortgage to the Corporation of Kensington. The present owner of the property desires to pay off this mortgage, which is $500.00. The mortgage is not in the possession of this department, and never was, and careful search has been made in your office and other departments. So far, the mortgage has not been found, and without it, it is impossible to satisfy the same of record.

The owner of the property represented by E. F. Schively, Esq., of the Real Estate Title Insurance & Trust Co., has agreed to accept a release of the mortgage from the premises. I doubt your authority to execute a release without a resolution or an ordinance of Councils, and have so notified Mr. Schively. It might be well for you to suggest to some Councilman the necessity of having an ordinance passed authorizing you to execute such a release.

I merely state the facts, however, in order that you may take such action as you deem best. The owner is clearly entitled to a satisfaction or release of mortgage, and has a right to pay off the mortgage, but this department is without any authority to act in the matter.

Yours, very truly,

R. ALEXANDER,

Assistant City Solicitor.

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR.

Philadelphia, June 25, 1889.

To the Presidents and Members of the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I return herewith without my approval Item 1 of an ordinance entitled “An Ordinance to make an appropriation to certain items in the annual appropriation to the Department of the Receiver of Taxes, Commissioners of Fairmount Park, and Coroner, for the year 1889.” This item proposes to appropriate to the Department of the Receiver of Taxes, the sum of one thousand (1,000) dollars, with which to refund certain moneys received by a former Registrar (now deceased) of the Department for supplying the city with water, by direction of the then Chief of that Department, but without the authority of either law or ordinance.

The Registrar proved a defaulter, and it is alleged that those who deposited these moneys as security for the repairs of ditches over water connections made by them, demand that they shall be repaid by the city.

It is very questionable whether the city is liable for these unauthorized receipts, and before any payments are made a legal decision as to her liability should be had. If such decision is adverse to the city, settlement to the claim should be made through the Law Department, or through the Department of the City Controller, and not by the Department of the Receiver of Taxes, which is established to collect moneys due to the City and not to pay moneys due by her.

I feel satisfied that after a more careful inquiry into this matter, your Honorable Bodies will sustain my objections to this appropriation.

I am, Respectfully,

EDWIN H. FITLER,

Mayor.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS.

Philadelphia, August 10, 1889.

HON. EDWIN H. FITLER,

Mayor of the City of Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR:—Applications have been made to the Bureau of Surveys for permits to connect with main sewers, which have been refused because of the damage that would be done to structures of this character by an indiscriminate breaking of the sides to admit house drainage, the suggestion being always added that smaller sewers of pipes should be laid to accommodate the houses requiring drainage, and making but one connection with the main sewer where otherwise thirty or forty would be required.

In several instances property owners, without these permits, have, in violation of the ordinance of Councils against work of this character without permit, made the connection and have been arrested. The City Solicitor instructs me that under the ordinances now in force we have no right to refuse permits for such connections whenever the owner of the property making application for the same has paid his frontage charges for the construction of the sewer, and he suggests that, to prevent damage to important structures of this sort, additional legislation should be had, more carefully regulating this matter.

I have the honor to request that you will ask Councils to consider this subject, and to adopt such ordinances as they may deem wise and just in the premises.

Yours, truly,

DEAR SIR:—I have the honor to request that you will advise Councils that the appropriation for laying service pipe, by the Bureau of Water, is very nearly exhausted, and that a very large amount of pipe which is needed to supply houses already completed, and for which urgent demands are daily made, cannot be laid unless additional funds are appropriated for that purpose.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS.

Philadelphia, September 3, 1889.

HON. EDWIN H. FITLER,
Mayor of the City of Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR:—I have the honor to call your attention to the condition of the Item of appropriation, to pay for the paving of intersections in connection with the first paving streets throughout the City, known as Item 2, of Section 5, of the Ordinance making an appropriation to this Department for the current year.

Amount appropriated.....	$75,000 00
Amount available from previous years, transfers to, and extra appropriations.....	101,133 43

Amount available, $176,133 43

Contracts executed and charged off.....	$134,481 34
Contracts awarded, but not executed.....	35,712 00
Bids scheduled, but not awarded.....	68,966 00
Advertised for, but not awarded.....	14,575 00
Bridge at Twenty-second street and connecting railroad work, to be done by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company .....	14,000 00

Total, $267,684 34      $267,684 34

Leaving a deficiency for work ordered by Ordinance of Councils of.....	$91,550 91
--	-------------

This deficiency represents work amounting to very nearly nine hundred thousand (900,000) dollars, the City paying for the intersections only, while the property owners pay for the paving of the rest of the street.

Much of the work ordered, which cannot be done because of insufficient appropriation, is very important, in view of building operations in front of which the streets are to be paved, and some measures should be devised by which additional funds can be secured to do this work.

It would also, I think, be injudicious, if not illegal, to pass Ordinances for additional work until appropriations sufficient to pay for that already ordered have been made.

I have the honor to request that you will call the attention of Councils to this matter, so that they may be advised of the exact condition of affairs.

Your truly,

LOUIS WAGNER, Director.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I have the honor to herewith transmit for your consideration a communication, which has my approval, from Louis Wagner, Director of the Department of Public Works, requesting an appropriation or transfers from appropriations already made, to pay for laying a forty-eight (48) inch main from the East Park Reservoir to American and York streets, with a branch to the Lehigh Avenue Reservoir at Sixth street.

I am, respectfully,

EDWIN H. FITLER, Mayor.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS.

Philadelphia, August 10, 1889.

HON. EDWIN H. FITLER,

Mayor of the City of Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR:—Because of the excessive proportion of cost of pumping at a small station, and also because of the generally unsatisfactory character of the water pumped at the Kensington Station, it has been the settled policy of this Department not to pump water there except when absolutely necessary, because of the large consumption during the summer months.

None was pumped between the latter part of August, 1888, and the middle of June, 1889, but since that time we have been compelled to keep this station in continuous operation.

This condition of affairs will recur annually unless an additional supply-main can be laid from the East Park Reservoir to the Lehigh avenue Reservoir. This latter reservoir is now connected with the Wentz Farm Reservoir, with the Corinthian Reservoir, and with the Spring Garden Reservoir, but all the mains are tapped between these reservoirs and the Lehigh Avenue Reservoir, and a comparatively small quantity of water reaches the latter.

For the purpose of remedying these difficulties it is the desire of this Department to lay a forty-eight (48) inch main from the East Park Reservoir to American and York streets, with a branch to the Lehigh Avenue Reservoir at Sixth street. The original intention was to ask money for this work out of the probable appropriations for extensions for the year 1890, but if the work is delayed until this appropriation is available, it will take so long to make contract for and cast the necessarily large amount of large pipe, that the pipe cannot be laid until too late to be of any service during the summer of 1890.

The estimated cost of the work is two hundred and twenty-five thousand (225,000) dollars, and the distance to be covered is nearly three miles.

In view of the facts above stated, I have the honor to request that you will ask Councils to make an appropriation, or transfers from appropriations already made, of the money necessary for this work, so that the contracts must be executed this fall and all or most of the pipe laid during the early spring of 1890.

There are some Items of appropriation to this Department from which a portion of this money may be had.

Yours truly,

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR.

Philadelphia, September 4, 1889.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I have the honor to herewith transmit for your consideration a communication which has my approval, from Louis Wagner, Director of the Department of Public Works, forwarding a report of the Chief Engineer and Surveyor upon the present condition and the suggested permanent mode of relief of the main sewers generally known as the Cohocksink sewer, and the Girard College branch of the Pennsylvania avenue sewer.

This subject is one of such moment, and affecting so many and such varied business interests, and also the health and comfort of the people residing on the lines of these sewers, that prompt consideration should be given to the suggestions made, and, if possible, means provided for the construction of other sewer plant to relieve the great pressure of water put upon those now in existence. When these sewers were originally constructed, the area of the city built upon and drained by them was so small, compared with the present condition of affairs, that they were ample for their work, in spite of their original defective construction. Their present condition, because of want of capacity and their general bad condition, is likely to result in breaks with every rainfall, and the large amount of money necessary for the building of relieving main sewers will be expended in the repair of breaks, as they so frequently occur.

I am, respectfully,

EDWIN H. FITLER, Mayor.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS.

Philadelphia, September 4th, 1889.

HON. EDWIN H. FITLER,

Mayor of the City of Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR:—I have the honor to request that you will call the attention of Councils to the condition of two of the main sewers, which, during the unprecedented rains of the present summer, have broken in sundry places, and which, because of their defective original construction, and the largely increased work put upon them beyond that first contemplated, are in continued danger of similar breaks whenever an unusually heavy rainfall occurs.

By my direction the Chief Engineer and Surveyor has made a detailed examination of these sewers and the area drained by them, and a copy of his report is hereto attached.

In addition to this report, I, during the last year, had a thorough inspection made of the Cohocksink sewer, noting the places most in need of repair, and since that time a great deal of work has been done upon this sewer, thereby preventing breaks which have heretofore occurred at almost every rain.

Whilst it is absolutely necessary for the protection of these sewers, and also for the comfort and safety of the citizens who reside or do business on the line of the streets under which they are built, that the present breaks should be promptly repaired, (this work is now going on with the expectation that Councils will, at the proper time, appropriate money to pay for the same), it is but sound public policy that permanent relief should be given at the earliest moment practicable. This can only be done, as indicated in the report of the Chief Engineer and Surveyor, by the construction of additional main sewers to relieve those now in existence. An immediate appropriation of at least two hundred and fifty thousand dollars should be made, so that the work may be commenced at once, and with additional appropriations to be made next year continued to completion.

The position of our citizens who are damaged by these repeated and continued breaks is one of unusual hardship, they being apparently without remedy against anyone for the losses they have suffered, and it is but right that they should have all relief possible at the earliest moment practicable.

I am aware that money for this, and other work of almost as great moment, is, at this time, difficult to obtain, but the emergency is of such a character that a special effort should be made by City Councils and their Committees to secure funds for the purpose indicated.

Yours truly,

Subject: Broken Main Sewers.

LOUIS WAGNER, Esq.,

Director of the Department of Public Works.

DEAR SIR:—I present the following statement relative to the Cohocksink sewer:

The Cohocksink sewer empties into the Delaware river at Laurel street wharf. The main sewer extends along Laurel and Canal streets to Front street,  $12\frac{3}{4}$  by  $18\frac{1}{2}$  feet in diameter; built by George W. Mooney; completed March 1st, 1872; Ordinance of April 24th, 1868, page 163; thence along Canal street to Otter street, twin sewers, 11 feet in diameter; along Germantown avenue to Thompson street, 11 feet in diameter; along Thompson street to Randolph street,  $10\frac{1}{2}$  feet in diameter; built by Daniel Stone and George and John Clark; completed November 1st, 1860; Ordinance of February 27th, 1858, page 106; thence along Randolph street to Oxford street, old 10 feet sewer; built before Act of Consolidation by the District of Kensington; thence along Randolph street and Montgomery avenue to Sixth street, 10 feet in diameter; built by Murphy & Kennedy; completed December 27th, 1869; Ordinance of April 24th, 1868, page 163; thence along Montgomery avenue to Ninth street, 9 feet in diameter; along Ninth street to Berks street, 8 feet in diameter; built by D. & C. Kennedy; completed March 13th, 1861; Ordinance of April 24th, 1860, page 188; thence from  $102\frac{1}{2}$  feet north of Berks street to Norris street, 9 feet in diameter; along Norris, Eleventh, Diamond and Twelfth streets to Dauphin street, 13 feet in diameter; thence along Dauphin street to Broad street, 12 feet in diameter; to Philadelphia street, 11 feet in diameter; built by John Clark; completed May 26th, 1870; Ordinance of April 24th, 1868, page 163; thence along Dauphin street to Eighteenth street,  $9\frac{1}{2}$  feet in diameter; to Nineteenth street,  $10\frac{1}{2}$  feet in diameter; built by James H. Kreamer; completed January 18th, 1878; Ordinance of February 28th, 1877, page 40; Thence to Twenty-second street,  $9\frac{1}{2}$  feet in diameter; to twenty-fourth street,  $7\frac{1}{2}$  feet in diameter; along Dauphin street and Sedgley avenue,  $6\frac{1}{2}$  feet in diameter; built by McCafferty & Malloy; completed January 5th, 1886; Ordinance of October 7th, 1882, page 263; thence along Sedgley avenue to Susquehanna avenue, 6 feet in diameter; built by Francis P. Deehan; completed April 20th, 1886; Ordinance of April 4th, 1885, page 49; thence along Susquehanna avenue to Thirtieth street, 6 feet in diameter; to Thirty-first street, 4 feet in diameter; built by Salathiel Cox; completed July 6th, 1877; Ordinance of November 1st, 1875, page 298.

The total area drained by this sewer is 2,920 acres, extending from the Delaware river northwest to South Laurel Hill, and Mt. Vernon Cemeteries; bounded on the northeast by Frankford, Susquehanna, and Germantown avenues, and the Norristown branch of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, and on the southwest by Brown street, Girard and Ridge avenues.

The records show that the size of the sewer (9 feet in diameter) at Ninth and Norris streets is increased to 13 feet, and all the main and tributary sewers west of that have since been proportioned of the full capacity adapted to built-up territory.

When I came into the office in 1872, I learned that the design had been to build a main sewer eastward along Norris street to the Aramingo Canal, to relieve the increased flow of storm-water resulting from the paving and building up of this territory. Seeing at the time the serious objections to further polluting the sluggish Aramingo Canal, I searched out a substitute which would discharge into the deep waters of the Delaware river, and selected Shackamaxon street, because that street is four feet higher near the Delaware river than any other street in the vicinity. The sewer on Shackamaxon street, from the river at Thompson street, and on Thompson street to Germantown avenue, would first intercept the Cohocksink sewer at that point, and relieve that section, and a branch along Cadwallader street, or Germantown avenue to Norris, and on Norris street to Ninth, would relieve that point.

3,300 feet of the former section is estimated to cost $300,000, and 5,700 feet of the extension to Ninth and Norris streets $200,000.

For many years past, when heavy rains have caused damage by overcharging the Cohocksink sewer, the question of making appropriation for building this relief sewer had been discussed by Councils; but the difficulty of procuring sufficient money has caused the matter to be set aside from time to time.

The building up of such an immense territory whereby the storm-water is thrown so suddenly in large quantities into the sewers, flooding the territory and breaking the sewers, produces such disastrous results that appropriations should be made to start the work at the earliest moment possible. It is recommended that an appropriation of $200,000 be made to commence the work.

Shackamaxon street now terminates at the ferry dock belonging to the City, and as it has grown to be a great public necessity, the sewer should be diverted to the adjoining wharf, and built out through the pier so as to discharge into deep water beyond the Port Warden's line, and not into the ferry dock.

Girard College Branch of Pennsylvania avenue main sewer from Pennsylvania avenue on Twenty-eighth, Brown, Twenty-seventh, Parrish, and Twenty-fifth streets to Girard College grounds; North College avenue and Twenty-fourth street, is five feet in diameter from Pennsylvania avenue to North College avenue; all of it south of Girard College, were built by Hutchinson and Prall, under Ordinance of February 27, 1858, page 106, and November 20, 1858, page 452, and completed about April 18, 1860. The total area drained is 200 acres at Pennsylvania avenue, and only 160 acres at Twenty-fifth and Parrish street. The sewer is of sufficient diameter to drain the whole of one inch rainfall per hour from the entire area. The trouble with the drainage must arise from the defective condition of the sewer; it is covered with from 20 to 40 feet of earth of a sandy nature, running when saturated with water; it slips in from small openings, so as to block the flow of water, and this has caused other breaks. With the daily flow of water, it is a difficult task to repair or re-construct, but, on account of the deep cellar connection, it must be maintained and put in repair, which should be thorough, from one end to the other. There are four bends at street corners, which may retard the flow; these should be enlarged if the full water course is continued as heretofore.

The sewer was originally built to take the place of an old water-course along a deep ravine, diagonal with the streets, and the sewer, to take its place, had to zig-zag along the rectangular system of streets south of Twenty-fifth and Parrish streets. A direct line, southward on Twenty-fifth street to Pennsylvania avenue, a distance of 1,700 feet, would be pre-eminently best for a sewer. There is very high ground intervening, so that most of the distance would have to be tunnelled, passing 50 feet below the surface at Twenty-fifth and Brown streets. It would, therefore, be very expensive, costing $50,000; this would be in addition to repairs on the old sewer. It would be best to ask for an appropriation of $50,000 at once for relief, and as soon as the present repairs proceed far enough to permit an interior examination of the old sewer, we can readily determine what will be the most economical remedy. These investigations will be made as soon as practicable and reported to you.

Yours truly,

SAMUEL L. SMEDLEY,

Chief Engineer & Surveyor.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I have the honor to herewith transmit for your consideration, a communication, which has my approval, from Robert Laughlin, President of the Department of Charities and Correction, requesting transfers in the annual appropriation to that Department, also an additional appropriation for flour, corn-meal, oatmeal and wheaten preparations.

DEPARTMENT OF CHARITIES AND CORRECTION.

Philadelphia, August 5, 1889.

HON. EDWIN H. FITLER,

Mayor of the City of Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR:—Enclosed please find form of an ordinance asking for certain transfers in the annual appropriation to the Department of Charities and Correction, for the Bureau of Charities for the year 1889.

These sums are necessary to provide for supplies and pay for needed repairs for the balance of the year.

In consequence of the increased price of flour over last year, nearly twenty-two per cent., the appropriation of twenty-seven thousand dollars, made for the present year, is insufficient, and we therefore respectfully request that you will recommend to Councils an additional appropriation of two thousand dollars to Item 10, for flour, corn meal, oatmeal, and wheaten preparations.

Yours respectfully,

R. LAUGHLIN, President.

APPENDIX No. 148.

DEPARTMENT OF CITY CONTROLLER.

Philadelphia, September 1, 1889.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—In accordance with the provisions of the Act of Assembly, approved June 11, 1879, I herewith furnish a detailed statement of the estimated receipts, expenditures and liabilities of every kind for the next fiscal year from January 1, 1890, and for the months of the current year from August 1, 1889, and I have added thereto the usual calculations for the tax rate, made in conformity with the directions of the first section of that Act.

The total estimated expenses of the various Bureaus and Departments of the City for the year 1890, as submitted, amount to $18,845,332.88, exclusive of "the lawful obligations due by the City during that year," which must be provided for, amounting to $4,902,999.17.

The latter sum includes the several amounts required for the payment of interest and State tax upon loans of the City during 1890; the amount required to pay the principal of the four per cent. loan maturing that year; the amount required by the Sinking Fund Commissioners; an estimated amount for mandamuses, and an estimated deficiency or floating indebtedness of $451,709.17. This deficiency is caused by the large number of judgments obtained against the City and paid during the first seven months of this year, for which no allowance was made, and the falling off of estimated receipts.

All the judgments against the City prior to 1889 that were held by the Philadelphia National Bank have been paid by the City Treasurer without interest.

The Court of Common Pleas having decided that the provision in the Act of Assembly, approved June 1, 1885, relative to the payment of Judgments against the City is inoperative, an allowance in this statement of $200,000 for mandamuses has been made. This is an estimate only, and the probability is that the actual amount will be in excess of it. The mandamuses paid during the present year to August 1, amount to $392,484.95. Of this amount there was paid for opening and widening streets and change of grade, $302,554.75; injuries, $49,077.71; miscellaneous, $40,852.49; total, $392,484.95.

In the statement of the LIMIT OF CITY EXPENSES FOR 1890, the "Average income from sources other than current tax moneys (exclusive of Sinking Fund receipts), such average of income to be determined by ascertaining the average income during the five years immediately preceding," is probably less than it will be found to be, as the receipts from the Gas Bureau enter into the average for one year and nine months only, and the fees for licenses to sell liquor at retail enter into the average for one year only.

No estimate of probable receipts in 1890 has been made for Fairmount Park Fund, which amounted, in 1888, to $11,406.05, and has averaged for the past five years $12,406.30 per year.

The valuation of taxable property for 1890, furnished by the Board of Revision of Taxes, amounts to $688,713,518, which is an increase of $19,182,819 upon real estate, and $23,135 upon personal property, making a total increase of $19,205,954 in the valuation of taxable property over 1888.

To meet the entire demand of the several departments and bureaus for the next year it would be necessary to levy a tax of $2.87 per hundred upon the valuation of taxable property, which is of course impracticable.

If the tax rate be fixed at $1.85 it will be necessary to reduce the estimates of the departments and bureaus $6,088,598.10; this will, however, yield $643,517.32 more than the receipts and the tax levy at the same rate produced this year.

A tax rate of $1.80 will produce $12,182,728.61, which is $263,980.26 more than the receipts and the tax levy of the present year yielded at the rate of $1.85 per hundred.

A tax rate of $1.90 upon the same valuation will give $5,784,310.13 less than the departments and bureaus ask for.

A tax rate of $1.95 upon the same valuation will give $5,461,431 less than the departments and bureaus ask for.

A tax rate of $2.00 upon the same valuation will produce $5,154,018.92 less than the departments and bureaus ask for.

It is a satisfaction to the tax payer and the holders of the loans of the City to observe the gradual reduction of the funded debt, with a corresponding decrease in annual charges for interest. There have been redeemed during the first seven months of the present year six per cent. loans to the amount of $923,400, and on December 31st next there will be redeemed $204,975 of the four per cent. loan, and on January 1st next there will be redeemed $1,039,900 of the six per cent. loan. The decrease of the charges for interest and State tax for 1890 over 1889 is $88,284.20; the total decrease of the funded debt of the City, from January 1, 1884, to January 1, 1890, inclusive, is, $11,280,286.90.

Very respectfully your obedient servant,

ROBERT P. DECHERT, City Controller.

APPENDIX No. 153.

Philadelphia, September 3, 1889.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—We, your Committee on Surveys, to whom was referred the accompanying petitions for sewers on Cambridge, Marshall, Sharswood and Sixth Streets and Montgomery Avenue, beg leave to report, that these sewers have been duly approved by the Board of Surveyors, and are necessary to the public health, convenience, and cleanliness. Their aggregate length will be 1,813 feet, the assessment upon the properties on the lines thereof will yield $4,651, which will pay the cost of their construction. We herewith submit an ordinance for their construction and recommend its passage.

AN ORDINANCE

To authorize the construction of sewers on Cambridge, Marshall, Sharswood, and Sixth streets and Montgomery avenue.

SECTION 1. The Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia do ordain, That the Department of Public Works be, and is hereby authorized to construct the following Sewers viz; On Cambridge street from the sewer in Twenty-eighth street to the west curb line of Twenty-seventh street; on Marshall street, from the sewer in Montgomery street to the north curb line of Columbia avenue; on Sharswood street, from Twenty-second to Twenty-third street; on Sixth street, from the sewer in Somerset street to the summit about two hundred and forty-eight feet south of Somerset street, and on Montgomery avenue from Tulip street to a point about one hundred and twenty feet east of Tulip street; said sewers to be built in accordance with specifications prepared by the Director of the Department of Public Works.

SECT. 2. The Director of the Department of Public Works shall advertise according to law, announcing that the bids will be received for the sewers above designated, and he shall allot them to the lowest bidders; and it shall be a condition of said contract, that the contractor shall accept the sums assessed upon and charged to the properties lying on the lines of said sewers in manner and form authorized by ordinance, entitled "An Ordinance regulating the assessment upon property for the construction of branch culverts or drains," approved May 12, 1866, and supplement thereto approved February 16, 1869.

APPENDIX No. 154.

Philadelphia, September 3, 1889.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—We, your Committee on Surveys, to whom was referred the accompanying ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to place upon the City plan Filbert street, from Forty-first street to Forty-third street, and Forty-third street, from Market street to Powelton avenue," beg leave to report, that since the passage of the original ordinance, improvements have been made in the way of buildings, which would make the carrying into effect of the provisions of that ordinance highly expensive. An easier way is offered by which an outlet can be secured without the destruction of buildings, and consequently with less cost. We approve of the amendment proposed, and recommend it to your favorable consideration.

Thomas L. Hicks (Ch'n), Joseph H. Brown, Chas. W. Savidge, D. C. Cleaver, Chas. F. Iseminger, Geo. L. Horn, W. H. James, Frank Schanz, Isaac D. Hetzell, W. Thornton, James Hagan, Wm. Moffet, James Kenton, John B. Dallas, O. M. Willson.

AN ORDINANCE

To amend an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to place upon the City plan Filbert street, from Forty-first to Forty-third street, and Forty-third street, from Market street to Powelton avenue,”

SECTION 1. The Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia do ordain, That an ordinance entitled “An Ordinance to place upon the City plan Filbert street, from Forty-first to Forty-third street, and Forty-third street, from Market street to Powelton avenue,” approved the twelfth day of March, 1887, be altered and amended so as to read: That the Department of Public Works be, and is hereby authorized to place upon the City plan Filbert street from Forty-first to Market street, in the Twenty-fourth Ward.

APPENDIX No. 155.

Philadelphia, September 3, 1889.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—We, your Committee on Surveys, to whom was referred the accompanying ordinance to strike Otter and Penngrove streets, from Holly to Forty-second street, from the City plan, to place thereon Penngrove street, from Forty-first to Forty-second street, and to revise the grade of this and adjacent streets, beg leave to report, that the lot of ground in question is triangular in shape, and to cut it up by the streets now established would be to the disadvantage of the owner, and the city would gain nothing thereby. By the revision proposed by the accompanying ordinance one street would take the place of two, making a much more convenient outlet, and giving the lots a greater depth. The revision of grades is simply to make the new street conform to the surrounding neighborhood. We therefore return the ordinance with a proviso to secure the city against claims for damages, and recommend your favorable action.

AN ORDINANCE

To strike Otter and Penngrove streets, from Forty-second to Holly streets, from the City plan, to place Penngrove street, from Forty-first to Forty-second street, upon the plan, and to revise the grades of this and the adjacent streets.

SECTION 1. The Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia do ordain, That the Department of Public Works be, and is hereby authorized to strike from the City plan Otter and Penngrove streets, from Forty-second to Holly streets, and to place upon the plan Penngrove street, from Forty-first to Forty-second street, and to revise the grade of this and the adjacent streets: Provided, That the owners of the ground within the lines of the said street shall first file a bond, or enter into a written agreement with the City, satisfactory to the City Solicitor, indemnifying the City against all damages that may arise, or covenanting and agreeing to obtain releases from all such owners of all damages that may arise by reason hereof, before this ordinance shall go into effect.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—We, your Committee on Surveys, to whom was referred the accompanying ordinance to place June or Forty-sixth-and-one-quarter street, from Brown to Seneca street, on the City plan, beg leave to report that the owner of the ground laid out the street at a comparatively recent date, and had full knowledge of the ordinance fixing the width of such streets at not less than thirty feet. Your Committee can discover no reason for a departure from this well-established and beneficial regulation in this particular case, and return the ordinance with a negative recommendation, and a resolution discharging them from its further consideration, of which we ask the passage.

Thomas L. Hicks (Ch'n), Jos. H. Brown, Chas. W. Savidge, D. C. Cleaver, L. W. Moore, Chas. F. Iseminger, Geo. L. Horn, W. H. James, Frank Schanz, Isaac D. Hetzell, W. Thornton, James Hagan, Wm. Moffet, James Kenton, John B. Dallas, O. M. Willson.

APPENDIX No. 172.

Philadelphia September 12, 1889.

To the Select and Common Councils,
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—We, your Committee on Surveys, to whom was referred the accompanying “Ordinance to authorize the construction of main sewers to relieve the Cohockink main sewer, and the Girard College branch of the Pennsylvania avenue sewer, beg leave to report, your committee have given an attentive consideration to the best means of preventing a recurrence of the disasters and damages arising out of the breaking of the main sewers on the line of the Cohocksink sewer and the Girard College branch of the Pennsylvania avenue sewer. As a result of their labors they submit the accompanying ordinance, which it is believed will afford a remedy, and upon which they invoke your speedy and favorable action. We respectfully call to your attention the report of the Subcommittee on Main Sewers hereunto annexed.

Thomas L. Hicks (Ch'n), W. Thornton, W. H. James, Geo. L. Horn, Chas. W. Savidge, Jos. H. Brown, Samuel Baizley, R. E. Henderson, W. McCoach, A. E. Jones, Isaac D. Hetzell, O. M. Willson, Wm. P. Becker, D. C. Cleaver.

Philadelphia, September 12, 1889.

To the Committee on Surveys.

GENTLEMEN:—The Committee on Main Sewers, to which was referred “Ordinances to construct main sewers along the line of Shackamaxon street, from the river to Thompson street, and on Thompson street to Germantown avenue, and for a main sewer on Twenty-fifth street, from Parrish street to Pennsylvania avenue," respectfully report that we have made a careful examination of the necessities of the above sewers, and find that they are very badly needed. The matter has been in the hands of your Committee for several years, but owing to the lack of funds, nothing could be done. The sewer known as the Cohock-sink sewer was never intended to drain the large territory it now does, extending over an area of 2,920 acres, being all that part of the City from the Delaware river to South Laurel Hill and Mount Vernon Cemeteries, and from Frankford, Susquehanna and Germantown avenues and the Norristown branch of the Philadelphia and Norristown Railroad to Brown street, Girard and Ridge avenues. Portions of this sewer were built before consolidation by the old District of Kensington, and while fully adapted to the needs as they then existed, are now totally unfit for use at this time. The sewer along Shackamaxon street is not only intended to relieve the old sewer, but is the beginning of a new system. The construction as far as Thompson street and Germantown avenue will be a partial relief. When continued as far as Ninth and Norris streets, it will fully overcome the present difficulty and prevent the flooding of the streets and cellars in that vicinity. The sewer known as the Girard College branch of the Pennsylvania avenue sewer takes a zigzag course from Twenty-fifth and Parrish to Twenty-eighth and Pennsylvania avenue, and owing to the defective condition of the sewer, the sandy earth, when saturated with water, runs into it so as to block the flow of water. It is covered with from 20 to 40 feet of earth. With the daily flow of water, it is a difficult task to repair or reconstruct. There are four bends at street corners, and these help to retard the flow of water. The only permanent relief is the building of a sewer down Twenty-fifth street, from Parrish to Pennsylvania avenue. By the passage of the annexed ordinance both sections of the City will receive that which they have for a number of years desired and needed. We ask that the ordinance be sent to Councils with a favorable recommendation.

W. THORNTON, Ch'n.
W. H. JAMES,
JOS. H. BROWN,
D. C. CLEAVER.

SECT. 2. The Director of the Department of Public Works shall advertise for proposals and award the contract in accordance with existing ordinances and laws from time to time as appropriations are made. ## DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS.

Philadelphia September 19, 1889.

HON. EDWIN H. FITLER,
Mayor of the City of Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR:—By reason of the large number of attachments made during the current year through the Bureaus of Gas, Surveys and Water, and also by the several Electrical Companies, the Item for repaving over ditches is entirely exhausted, over 32,000 ditches having been paved.

It will be a matter of great inconvenience to the public, and also a risk of damages to the City, to permit ditches that may be opened during the remainder of the year to remain unpaved until next Spring.

I have the honor to request that you will ask Councils to pass an ordinance for an additional appropriation, or a transfer, of say not less than $5,000 for this work.

Early action in this matter is very desirable.

Yours truly,

LAW DEPARTMENT.

Philadelphia, August 7, 1889.

JOHN ECKSTEIN, Esq.,
Clerk of Common Council.

DEAR SIR:—I acknowledge the receipt of a communication requesting me to furnish your Committee with an opinion upon the validity of the following ordinance:

“An Ordinance to authorize the Department of Public Works to supply gas to the consumers resident outside of Philadelphia county.”

“SECTION 1. The Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia do ordain, That the Department of Public Works be, and is hereby authorized to supply gas to consumers resident in adjoining counties whenever it shall be to the interests of the City of Philadelphia so to do, and to make such regulations for the supply and for the collection of moneys due for the consumption of gas, as it may be deemed proper: Provided, That any pipe necessary for supplying such gas shall be paid for by the consumers to be supplied.”

In brief, the question is, has the City of Philadelphia a right to supply and sell gas to consumers outside of the City and County of Philadelphia?

A municipal corporation is a body politic established by law to assist in the general government of the country, but chiefly to regulate and administer the local or internal affairs of the city, town or district which is incorporated. (Dillon vol. 1, p. 26).

It has also been defined to be “investing the people of the place with the local government thereof.”

Dillon, vol. 1, p. 27, summarizing a discussion of the subject, says:

“We may therefore define a municipal corporation to be an incorporation by the authority of the government of the inhabitants of the particular place or district, and authorizing them in their corporate capacity to exercise subordinate specified powers of legislation and regulation, with respect to their local and internal concerns. This power of local government is the distinguishing feature of the municipal corporation proper. Municipal, like other corporations, possess no powers or faculties not conferred upon them either expressly or by fair implication, by the laws which create them or other statutes applicable to them.”

Section 16 of the Act of March 11, 1789, to incorporate the City of Philadelphia, provides:

“That the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Councilmen in Common Council assembled, shall have full power and authority to make, ordain, constitute and establish such and so many laws, ordinances, regulations and constitutions: Provided, The same shall not be repugnant to the laws and constitution of this commonwealth, as shall be necessary or convenient for the government and welfare of the said city, and the same to enforce, put in use and execution, by the proper officers, and at their pleasure, to revoke, alter and make anew as the occasion may require.”

Supplements and subsequent Acts of Incorporation have not materially changed the charter powers of the City, as herein named. The object, then, of the corporation of the City of Philadelphia, is to regulate and administer local and internal affairs, and to make such ordinances and regulations as are necessary or convenient for the government and welfare of the City.

The making and distribution of gas for the purpose of lighting the streets and public places of the municipality, is undoubtedly the exercise of a power necessary for the proper government and welfare of the City. The making of gas and the selling of the same to citizens for the purpose of lighting private houses and places of business, does not seem to be directly in the line of municipal powers or duties; and the supply and sale of gas to residents of adjoining counties would naturally and legally seem to be far removed from the powers and duties of the municipality. For, if the City has a corporate right to furnish and sell gas to the residents of the three counties adjoining the City and County of Philadelphia, it has the same right to supply the residents of every county in the State, and the extent of the business becomes one not of legal restriction, but of financial expediency. In short, the City of Philadelphia, chartered for local government and management of affairs within its territory, becomes in addition thereto, a gas-lighting corporation.

The source of power, and the facts relating to this business side of the municipal corporation, may be briefly traced as follows:

Following the general municipal powers as above given by the Act of March 11, 1789, (Laws of Penna., vol. 2, p. 634) came the Act of April 2, 1790, (2 Smith & Reads Laws, 526) which in Section 2 provides:

“That the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Councilmen in Common Council assembled, shall have full power and authority to make, ordain, constitute and establish such and so many laws, ordinances, regulations and constitutions as shall be convenient and necessary for the purpose of * * * lighting, watching * * * of the streets, lanes and alleys, of the said city, and regulating the time * * * of lighting, watching * * * the said streets, lanes and alleys, any law of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania heretofore made to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.”

This is the only statute I have been able to find conferring upon the City of Philadelphia in words authority to light her highways and public places. This Act has, however, been considered by the Courts as sufficient authority to enable the City to light her streets. (Strawbridge vs. City, 13 Phila. Rep's, 173.)

Without this statute, however, the power to light the streets of the City would probably be considered as among the implied powers incident to the corporation. It must be noticed, however, that the powers as given by statute extend only to the streets, lanes and alleys, and do not extend to the lighting of private dwellings and places of business. The words of the Act of 1790 are “shall have power to light the streets, lanes and alleys of the said city.”

The kind of light that the City is authorized to furnish is nowhere defined. Power, however, to light the streets with gas has been frequently recognized by the Courts, and is undoubted.

The gas-works in this City have been constructed, and gas manufactured and sold, not by virtue of any particular statute authorizing this, but under City ordinances based upon general municipal powers.

Since 1835 the City of Philadelphia has been engaged not only in the manufacture and sale of gas to light her streets, lanes and alleys, but in supplying private consumers, and large revenues have been derived therefrom.

The Philadelphia gas-works were originally constructed under the Ordinance of March 21, 1835. The works were completed in 1836, and belonged entirely to the stockholders. The exclusive management being vested in twelve trustees, the City was in no wise responsible for the management of the same, except for the proper application of all moneys paid into her treasury. Under the ordinance, the City reserved the right to take possession of the works at any time Councils might deem expedient and convert the stock into a loan.

By the Ordinance of December 22, 1836, the trustees were authorized to receive all moneys derived from the gas-works, and to keep all accounts in relation thereto.

Loans were made from time to time by the City of Philadelphia to assist in the enlargement of the gas-works, and the property of the gas-works, as well as the faith of the City, were pledged as a security to the loan-holders.

So long as any of these loans remained unpaid, it was held in the case of the Western Savings Fund vs. City, 7 Casey, 175, and in Wheeler vs. City, 27 Smith, 338, that the management and control of said gas works must remain in said trustees.

After the maturity of the last loan, no legal necessity existed for the continued management of the gas works by the said trustees; and under the Act of June 1, 1885, Article IV, the control and management of the Philadelphia Gas Works passed into the custody and management of the Department of Public Works.

It is thus seen that a strictly municipal corporation, with power to light streets and corporate property, has for more than half a century been engaged in making and selling gas for profit to private consumers.

As a municipal, like other corporations, has only such powers as are expressly given or clearly implied, one would naturally expect to discover some clear legislative authority authorizing the City to engage in the business of making and selling gas for profit. Such legislation, however, I have been unable to find.

The Supreme Court, however, has, without referring to the source of such power, so strongly and so clearly declared the right of the City of Philadelphia to make and sell gas to private consumers, that it is now as clearly settled as anything can be by judicial decision.

In the case of the Western Savings Fund Society vs. City of Philadelphia, 7 Casey, 175, Judge Lewis says:

"The contracts which a municipal corporation may make for the purpose of supplying the inhabitants with gas-lights in their streets and houses, relate to the "things of commerce," as distinguished in the civil law from the "things public," which are regulated by the sovereign. Such contracts are not made by the municipal corporation by virtue of its powers of local sovereignty, but in its capacity of a private corporation. The supply of gas-light is no more a duty of sovereignty than the supply of water. Both these objects may be accomplished through the agency of individuals or private corporations, and in very many instances they are accomplished by those means. If this power is granted to a borough or city, it is a special, private franchise, made as well for the private emolument and advantage of the City as for the public good. The whole investment is the private property of the City, as much so as the lands and houses belonging to it. Blending the two powers in one grant, does not destroy the clear and well-settled distinction, and the process of separation is not rendered impossible by the confusion. In separating them, regard must be had to the object of the Legislature in conferring them. If granted for public purposes exclusively, they belong to the corporate body in its public, political or municipal character. But if the grant was for purposes of private advantage and emolument, though the public may derive a common benefit therefrom, the corporation, quo ad hoc, is to be regarded as a private company. It stands on the same footing as would any individual or body of persons upon whom the like special franchises had been conferred."

In another case, between the same parties, 7 Casey, 189, Judge Strong says:

"As a local sovereign, it had no authority to enter into the business of manufacturing and selling gas; for its sovereignty did not extend to such subjects, any more than it did to almost any other manufacture. It is true, a municipal corporation is not bound by any engagement which prevents a discharge of the duties imposed upon it by its organic law, for the plain reason that such engagements are contrary to law. But when such a corporation engages in things not public in their nature, it acts as a private individual, no longer legislates, but contracts, and is as much bound by its engagements as is a natural person."

In the case of Wheeler vs. City of Philadelphia, 27 Smith, 338, Judge Paxson says:

"While it is no part of the ordinary and necessary duties of a municipal corporation to supply its citizens with gas, and water, it is nevertheless true that it may lawfully do so. Without desiring to enter into a nice discussion of the source of its right or power to do this, the fact that it has been exercised in this and many other states, for a long time unchallenged, exists."

In the case of Girard Life Insurance Co., vs. City of Philadelphia, 7 Norris, 393, Judge Paxson says:

"The supplying of water and gas to a city is not a municipal duty. Hence, when a city undertakes to do so, it acts, not by virtue of any rights of sovereignty, but exercises merely the functions of a private corporation."

Following the authority in these cases, Judge Thayer held in the very recent case of the Roman Catholic High School vs. City of Philadelphia, 46 Leg. Int'r, page 210, in substance, that the City could not be compelled to furnish gas to private consumers, except in accordance with contracts made between the City and consumers.

The ordinance which you have submitted to me authorizes the Department of Public Works to supply the gas to consumers resident in adjoining counties "whenever it shall be to the interests of the City so to do." There is nothing compulsory in this, and no duty to supply is imposed. When the Director of the Department of Public Works believes it will be to the interests of the City to make a contract, he will have the power so to do. When he believes it will not be to the interests of the City, he will have the right to refuse to contract.

The ordinance further provides that the Department of Public Works shall make such regulations for the supply and collection of moneys due for consumption of gas, as may be deemed proper.

The right to make all reasonable regulations has been frequently sustained by the Court. (Forster vs. Trustees Phila. Gas Works, 12 Phila. 509. Roman Catholic High School vs. City of Philadelphia, 46 Leg. Int., 210.)

It is further provided that any pipe necessary for supplying such gas shall be paid for by the consumers.

The ordinance does not pretend to give any right to use highways or private property without consent, nor does it seem to contemplate the purchase of land, or the construction of works outside of the City, but simply the supply of gas through pipes, paid for by consumers, and laid with the consent of the legal owners of ground.

To this ordinance I see no objection.

If the City in its strictly municipal capacity were about to engage in this enterprise, I should doubt its power. The Supreme Court, however, having repeatedly decided that the City has a legal right to contract like any duly chartered business corporation, I do not know of any principle of law which stops such a corporation from making such contracts for the sale of gas in adjoining counties as have been pronounced valid in this County.

In this opinion I have taken into consideration only the ordinance submitted and the inherent right of the City to contract for the sale in other counties, and have not considered the restrictions which may, or may not exist upon this right by reason of charters granted to gas-light companies operating in adjoining counties.

In my opinion the ordinance is valid.

Yours, respectfully,

CHAS. F. WARWICK, City Solicitor.
